WILLIAM R.

Whereas We cannot but be deeply Sensible of the great Goodness and Mercy of Almighty God, in putting an End to a Long, Bloody and Expensive War, by the Conclusion of an Honourable Peace; so We are not less touched with a Resentment, that notwithstanding this and many other great Blessings and Deliverances, Impiety, Prophaneness and Immorality do still abound in this Our Kingdom: And whereas nothing can prove a greater Dishonour to a well-ordered Government, where the Christian Faith is Professed, nor is likelier to provoke God to withdraw His Mercy and Blessings from Us, and instead thereof, to inflict heavy and severe Judgments upon this Kingdom, than the open and avowed Practice of Vice, Immorality and Prophaneness, which amongst many Men has too much prevailed in this Our Kingdom of late Years, to the high Displeasure of Almighty God,

And for the more Effectual Reforming these Men, who are a Discredit to Our Kingdom, Our further Pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly Charge and Command all Our Judges, Mayors, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and all other Our Officers and Ministers, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, and other Our Subjects, whom it may Concern, to be very Vigilant and Strict in the Discovery and the Effectual Prosecution and Punishment of all Persons who shall be Guilty of Excessive Drinking, Blasphemy, Profane Swearing and Cursing, Lewdness, Prophaneation of the Lord's Day, or other Dissolute, Immoral or Disorderly Practices, as they will answer it to Almighty God, and upon Pain of Our highest Displeasure. And for the more Effectual Proceedings herein, We do hereby Direct and Command Our Judges of Assizes and Justices of Peace to give strict Charges, at the respective Assizes and Sessions, for the due Prosecution and Punishment of all Persons that shall presume to Offend in any the Kinds aforesaid; and also of all Persons that, contrary to their Duty, shall be Remiss or Negligent in Putting the said Laws in Execution; and that they do at their respective Assizes and Quarter Sessions of the Peace cause this Our Proclamation to be publickly Read in Open Court immediately before the Charge is given. And We do hereby further Charge and Command every Minister in his respective Parish or Chapel, to Read or cause to be Read this Our Proclamation, at least Four times in every Year, immediately after Divine Service, and to incite and stir up their respective Auditories to the Practice of Piety and Virtue, and the Avoiding of all Immorality and Profaneness. And whereas several Wicked and Profane Persons have presumed to Print and Publish several Pernicious Books and Pamphlets, which contain in them Impious Doctrines against the Holy Trinity, and other Fundamental Articles of Our Faith, tending to the Subversion of the Christian Religion, therefore for the Punishing the Authors and Publishers thereof, and for the Preventing such Impious Books and Pamphlets being Published or Printed for the future, We do hereby strictly Charge and Prohibit all Persons that they do not presume to Write, Print or Publish any such Pernicious Books or Pamphlets, under the Pain of Incurring Our high Displeasure, and of being Punished according to the utmost Severity of the Law. And We do hereby strictly Charge and Require all Our Loving Subjects to Discover and Apprehend such Person and Persons whom they shall know to be the Authors or Publishers of any such Books or Pamphlets, and to bring them before some Justice of Peace or Chief Magistrate, in order that they may be Proceeded against according to Law.

GULIELMI III. REGIS.

An Act for the more Effectual Suppressing Prophane Cursing and Swearing.

Hereas it is found by Experience, that an Act of Parliament made in the One and twentieth Year of the Reign of King James the First, Intituled, An Act to Prevent and Reform Prophane Swearing and Cursing, hath proved Ineffectual to the Suppressing of those detestable Sins, by reason of some Deficiencies in the said Act: Be it therefore Enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament Assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any person or persons shall (after the Four and twentieth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred ninety five) Prophanely Swear or Curse in the presence or hearing of any Justice of Peace of the County, Riding or Division, or of the Mayor, or other Head Officer or Justice of Peace for any Ci-

			Prophanation of the Lord's-Day, by permitting Tippling, or Ex- ercising his Trade

Some Prudential Methods that have been Recommended to those that give Informations against Prophaneness and Debauchery in and about the Cities of London and Westminster; and particularly to the Members of the several Religious Societies that have acted in the business of Reformation.

I. TO give no Information where the Matter of Fact is any ways doubtful.

II. Particularly as to Drunkennes to use Caution and Prudence in judging when a Man is Drunk. Tho' a Man that cannot stand upon his Legs, or that reels or staggers as he goes along the Streets, and is heard to falter remarkably in his Speech, unless in Case of some known natural Infirmary or Defect, may ordinarily be presumed to be Drunk.

III. As to Prophane Swearing and Cursing, it may be advisable, that they remember the Words of the Oath, or Curse, that they may be able to repeat them if it be required.

IV. As to Permitting of Tipling, which, in Strictness of Law, is punishable upon any Day, it has been thought advisable to take Notice only of what is done on the Lord's-Day.

V. As to the Prophanation of the Lord's-Day, by the Exercise of any Trade, or ordinary Calling, to Inform against such as they see Offending by the Weighing, Measuring, Bargaining for, or Delivery of Goods, or Receiving

Receiving Money for them; as also against Bakers appearing in the Streets with their Baskets, or Barbers with their Pot, Bason, or Periwig-Box; Shoemakers, Taylors, Hatters, or other Tradesmen, carrying out their Work and Ware; and against all kind of Manual Labour, except in Cases of Necessity and Mercy.

VI. As to the Exposing Goods to Sale on the Lord's-Day; if it be by those that live in Cellars, not to inform against them unless they are seen to sell their Goods, because such Persons have some Pretence for keeping open their Cellar Doors, or Windows, for the Benefit of the Light, or Air: But if any Wares, Fruits, &c. be Exposed without or above such Doors or Windows, or in any Shops with the Windows open, or upon Stalls, whether belonging to the Persons that own such Goods, or not, and tho' there be nothing seen to be sold, these are sufficient Grounds of Information.

VII. Not to use any Artifice to provoke or draw in others to the Breach of the Laws, in the Instances afore-mentioned, or any of the like kind, that they may have an Occasion to inform against them.

VIII. That in all their Applications to the Magistrates, they behave themselves towards them with Deference and Respect.

A Spe-

A Specimen of an Agreement for the Forming of a Society for Reformation of Manners in any City, Town, or Village of the Kingdom, where there are but Three or Four Pious Persons that are willing to unite in such a Society, by their Subscribing this or some other Agreement of this nature, which is earnestly recommended to those that are piously dispos'd to give their Assistance in the Work of Reformation.

WE whose Names are hereunto subscribed, out of a Sense of the Duty we owe to Almighty God, in pursuance of His Majesty's Proclamation for the Discouragement and Prosecution of Debauchery and Prophaneness, and for the Suppressing of them, do agree as followeth.

I. That we meet Weekly at ——— under the Penalty of ——— for each Default, without a just Cause, to consult how we may be most serviceable in Promoting the Execution of the Laws against Prophaneness and Debauchery.

II. That we use all proper means to prevail with Men of all Ranks to concur with us in this Design, especially such as are under the Obligation of Oaths to do so; and in order to their acting vigorously therein, That we endeavour to persuade them to form themselves into Societies, at least to have frequent Meetings for this purpose.

III. That

III. That we encourage and assist Officers in the Discharge of their Duty of Discovering Disorderly Houses, of taking up of Offenders, and carrying them before the Magistrates, and moreover endeavour to assist both Magistrates and Officers, by giving Informations our selves, as we have Opportunity.

IV. That, for Order sake, every Member in his turn be Chairman, (unless any desire to be excused) for Four successive days of Meeting: That as soon as four Members are met the Chairman, or in his absence the next in order upon the List, (that shall be made for that purpose) shall take his Place; and that from that time, to the breaking up of the Meeting, we forbear all Discourse of publick News, or our private Affairs; as also all unnecessary Disputes upon speculative and controversial points of Religion.

V. That when any thing is proposed and seconded, the Chairman shall put it to the Question, which shall be determined by the Majority, and such Determination, till alter'd by a Majority at another Meeting, shall generally conclude every Member of this Society, unless contrary to the Word of God, the Law of the Land, or any one's Conscience.

E

VI. That

VI. That if upon any Matter in Debate the Voices are equal, the Question shall be again proposed by the Chairman at the same Meeting, if more of the Members come in, or otherwise at the next, or some other Meeting.

VII. That it be part of the Office of the Chairman, to take Notice of the Breach of any of our Orders, to enquire of every Member how he hath discharged the Business that was allotted him at the last Meeting, and what Difficulties he hath met with, in order to find out proper Remedies: To read over the Agreement of this Society once a Month: To read over the minutes of what hath been resolved upon at the end of every Meeting, and the List of the Members, and to go or send to such as have been absent twice successively, without a just Excuse known to some Member of the Society; and the next time any such Persons shall be present, the Chairman for the time being shall put them in mind of the great Importance of the Business they are engaged in, and of the Obligations they have laid themselves under, by their Subscriptions to attend the Meetings of this Society.

VIII. That we endeavour to find out proper Persons to be brought into this Society; and that no Person shall be proposed for a Member but when four or more of the Society are are present; and that none shall be admitted into this Society till they have been proposed at three several Meetings, and are thought to be Men of Piety and Temper; and that after any Person hath been proposed a second time for a Member, two Persons shall be appointed by the major part of the Society to make enquiry concerning his Life and Conversation.

IX. That in Cases of Difficulty that shall occur we consult the Learned in the Law, or other proper Persons, that we by no means go further than the Law will warrant us.

X. That we keep an exact Account of our Proceedings in a Book kept for that purpose.

XI. That the Debates and Resolutions of the Society be kept secret; and therefore no Person shall be admitted to be present at any Debate in any Meeting that is not a Member, unless upon special Occasion, and by Agreement of the Majority present.

XII. That we look upon our selves as under a peculiar Obligation to pray for the Reformation of the Nation in general, and to implore the Divine Direction and Blessing upon this our Undertaking in particular.
